New Dowager Empress
Yehonax Reported
Seriously Ill

Commander Harper of American Fleet Looking for Trouble in Pekin.

Manila, Nov. 19.—A dispatch to a local paper today from Shang Hai says that the death of Prince Ching at Pekin last night was officially reported there today.

The same dispatch says that the new dowager empress, Yehonax, is seriously ill and intimates that the trouble is traceable to the same cabal which is thought to have caused the recent death of Emperor Kuang Hsu and the Dowager Empress Tsiang.

Prince Ching is president of the Chinese board of foreign affairs, corresponding to the foreign office of other nations. A dispatch received today says that all efforts to confirm news of his death have been unsuccessful.

In view of today's bulletin relative to the death of Prince Ching at Pekin, it is the general belief here that Commander Harper of the Asiatic squadron, has had direct information from Pekin which led him to expect trouble there which would necessitate the presence of his vessels in Chinese waters.

DR. C. L. WYETH TAKES FREAK PHOTOGRAPH

Popular Mechanics Magazine Recognizes Newark Man's Work In That Line.

Nothing lends itself better to freak work than the photograph art, and better examples would be hard to find than the "ghost" pictures in the Popular Mechanics Magazine in the December number by Dr. C. L. Wyeth, of this city. The doctor, who has, on several occasions, contributed work to this magazine, was asked to contribute something of a freak nature.
The result was the "ghost" pictures, in which a stairway and the fireplace show through the transparency of the "shades" were taken in the following manner: In the staircase scene the camera was focussed on the stairway and the shutter opened for one half minute exposure. The "ghost" was standing behind the wall, properly gowned. When the half minute was up he jumped quickly before the stairway, taking the necessary pose. The exposure was carried half a minute longer. The transparency of the ghost was caused by the short exposure he received. The second ghost photograph shown was taken in the same way. Dr. Wyeth received a substantial check for his admirable work, which is favorably commented on by all who have seen it.

$100 CASH PRIZES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS ON DECEMBER 23d

Much interest was aroused among the boys and girls over the announcement in Wednesday's paper of the offer by The Advocate to give $100 in cash to fourteen boys and girls on December 23. The proposition is so simple that it is easily grasped.

To the boy or girl, 16 years of age or younger, who secures the greatest number of new subscribers for The Daily Advocate for a period of 5 weeks or more, The Advocate will award a prize of $25. To the one, second in the contest, $20 will be paid. The third prize is $15, fourth $10, fifth and sixth $5 each, and the seventh to fourteenth, inclusive, $2.50 each.

In order that no boy or girl may be disappointed, and that everyone who makes any effort to win a prize may be rewarded, The Advocate agrees to pay 20 per cent. on advance payment of subscriptions. This means that every boy or girl who fails to win a cash prize will be paid 10 cents for each 50-cent subscription secured.

Each contestant must secure a subscription for 5 weeks (50 cents) or if the paper is to be sent by mail for 2 months (50 cents). Additional credit will be given for subscriptions extending over longer periods as explained in yesterday's paper.

In case of a tie the prize will be divided.
Boys and girls who wish to enter the contest should call at the office and secure sample copies of the paper and printed cards which will help them in their work. Instructions and advice about how to go about it will be cheerfully furnished at this office.

The boys and girls will have no trouble in earning a nice sum of Christmas money. It is easy to get your friends to invest 50 cents or more to help you earn a cash prize. If the person you approach is a subscriber for The Advocate, suggest that he subscribe for a friend living either here or in another city. The price of the paper by carriers is 10 cents a week, by mail, to subscribers out of Newark, 25 cents a month.

Right now is the time to get busy. By starting now nobody is ahead of you. The contest ends at 8 p. m., December 23. It opens today.

You are sure to earn a neat sum of money even if you should fail to be one of the 14 cash prize winners.

Remember, the first prize is $25, second $20, third $15, fourth $10. It is easy work and it will pay you well. Come into The Advocate office and let us talk it over. But do it now.

Of Standard Told
by John D.
Rockefeller

GREW FROM LOAN $2,000

Oil Magnate Testified Freely on Stand for
Two Hours

Witness Was at Complete Ease and in Splendid Health as He Faced the Court.

New York, Nov. 19.—Like a tale from the "Arabian Nights" reads the story of the rise of the Standard Oil, as it fell from the lips of the man in-
to whose keeping the genii of wealth seemed to have given the magic lamp.

It was John D. Rockefeller himself, the "richest man in the world," whose name has been in the tongue of the American people for a dozen years as the one whose cunning brain and hand had wrought this modern Frankenstein, who was telling the marvelous story—giving the secret of how the "octopus" was created from a loan of $2,000 cash and reared until its wealth and power rival that of a nation of the first class.

Mr. Rockefeller was a witness for the defense in the suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company, which is being prosecuted by the United States government, and he related his story with the air of a country gentleman of kindly mien among a host of friends.

The appearance of Mr. Rockefeller at the hearing before Judge Franklin Ferris, the referee, brought a large crowd to the Customs Building.

The head of the big oil combine was surrounded by an imposing circle of counsel, and when he began his testimony he gazed complacently upon a swarm of newspaper men, behind whom pressed close a throng of people that filled the room.

Mr. Rockefeller appeared at complete ease, and when John G. Milburn, of counsel for the Standard Oil company, propounded his first question the witness spoke out in full tones as if he desired the most distant spectator in the chamber to hear. Then in a manner that indicated a pleasure at what he was about to tell, Mr. Rockefeller spoke of his start in the oil business, and how, under adverse conditions, that business grew to the proportions of the Standard Oil company of Ohio, with its capitalization of $1,000,000.

plurality of 1251 votes over his Republican opponent, Charles C. Green.
As the latest returns include offi-

STARTLING SPEECH MADE IN GERMAN REICHSTAG

Berlin, Nov. 19.—With the declaration that Germany appears as a parvenu and upstart among other nations of Europe, Chancellor Von Buelow made a startling speech in the Reichstag today in support of the government's eight finance bills, by which it is proposed to increase the annual revenue $125,000,000.

"Germany is unpopular among other nations," Von Buelow said, "and the only way we can regain our prestige is by upbuilding our naval and military forces. Germany needs armaments and money to build and maintain them. Our financial system is our weakest point and it is our patriotic duty to inaugurate new taxes."

DEFENSE HAS INNING IN THE WILSON TRIAL

Testimony May be Concluded Thursday Evening and Case Reach Jury Friday.

The taking of testimony in the trial of Robert Wilson, charged with the responsibility for the death of Charles Luther, is expected to be finished Thursday. The defense will probably rest late Thursday afternoon and the state will begin taking testimony in rebuttal, so the case will probably be decided this week.

At the adjourning hour, Thursday forenoon, the defense announced that there were three witnesses that they would like to examine before they would be prepared to conclude their testimony. One was Coroner Marriott and another was Mrs. Stough, both of whom testified Wednesday.

Most of the day, Thursday, was given over to character witnesses and the testimony of physicians and surgeons regarding their opinion as to whether a blow from a clenched fist could have caused Luther's death.

The case is exciting a great amount of interest and the spectators' seats have been crowded ever since the trial was commenced by Judge Campbell.

The defense in the Wilson manslaughter case began its examination of witnesses after the State had rested shortly after 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Michael Cosgrove was the first witness to be examined by the defense.
He testified that he was subpoenaed by the State. He said that he saw Luther in George's saloon on the night of October 2, 1907, and that he (Luther) had been drinking. He continued: "I saw Luther fall off the bench in the rear of the place and strike his head on the mop bucket.

He fell off there twice. I picked him up the first time and went out to see if Day'on was coming back, then when I got back he had fallen off again and hit the right side of his head on the bucket. I raised his head up a little and he made a noise like he would vomit. I ran out and found Jameson coming down the street and I got him to come in and help him up. The first time he fell off the bench he was sitting up. That time I grabbed him. After the second time he fell we helped him up and he walked over toward his brother's porch."

Mr. Fitzgibbon conducted the cross-examination, bringing out the fact that Wilson was drinking at the bar, but witness said he paid little attention to him (Wilson). He stated that he heard a lick struck and saw Luther lying on the floor. In answering regarding Luther's fall against the bucket, from the bench, the witness said he heard the rattle of the man's head striking the bucket.

Dennis S. George, who was the proprietor of the place at 201 East Main street, was called. The defense desired the bucket in question and George was excused to get it.

Holly Jameson, ex-police officer, was called next and told of helping Luther up from the bench and starting him home to his brother's house.
He stated that he removed Luther's coat and threw it on the steps; that Luther staggered about the yard for a while and then the witness said he wanted to take Luther to the back porch, but Luther replied that he didn't want to go back there, so they left him.

Park Harris of 56 Gay street, a barber, was the next witness. "I saw Luther in Miller's saloon near the Panhandle crossing on the night of October 2d. Luther was pretty drunk when I saw him about 9 o'clock and he seemed pretty quarrelsome. He took three drinks in Miller's. I know he drank beer and I think he had a whiskey. I saw him later at Bucey's saloon. At that time he was still intoxicated. I left there before Luther did and I went home.

"I knew Luther for about three years, and he was always inclined to be quarrelsome when I met him."

(Five minutes recess.)
Cross-examined by Prosecutor Fitzgibbon, the witness could not recall the names of any persons who ever said that Luther was quarrelsome. He said that on three occasions Luther had attempted to pick a quarrel out of him.

Dr. Yowell was called. He stated that he lives at 209 East Main street;
that he knew Luther; saw him in Miller's place on the eventful night;
that Luther had evidently been drinking; was quarrelsome; that Luther was in Miller's place for probably the six or eight minutes that he saw him;
that he drank beer.

The cross-examination was about the same as that in the cross-examining of the former witness.

John Bucey was examined next by the defense.

"I am a son of Thomas Bucey. I knew 'Pink' Luther and saw him that night in our place. He was apparently intoxicated and generally quarrelsome; he was as a rule quarrelsome when he was drinking, but when he was sober he was a pretty good fellow. He was in our place about 20 minutes, and left there about 25 minutes of twelve. He drank two glasses of beer."

The cross-examination brought out the fact that the witness' father was on the defendant's bond and that both the witness and his father were friends of Wilson.

Mr. George was then re-called to the stand and the mop-bucket and Kennitzer, for a long while suspected his wife of being intimate with the foreigner, and some time ago he attacked her and but for the interference of pedestrians would probably have injured her severely. The trouble Sunday afternoon was the direct result of this trouble. The knife used by the foreigner, inflicted a long gash in Kennitzer's face that required thirty-six stitches to close.

Shiftless and Lazy.

Complaints have reached the Advocate office from neighbors of a certain man residing in the North End of his shiftless and lazy ways. One woman stated that her name might be used in connection with the affair if desirable. She claimed that the man in question, and also an able-bodied son, had contributed nothing to the support of wife and mother for over a year. That neither of the men had worked during the last three months, and that they made no effort to secure work, but depended upon the wife and mother to take in washing to support them. It is said that for eight straight months at one time neither of the men did a stroke of work. Their case will probably be reported to the police officials.

State Corn Show.

Mr. A. H. Powell left Thursday morning for Columbus with 3000 select ears of corn to represent Licking county in the big corn show to be given under the auspices of the Ohio State university at Columbus on November 23, 24 and 25. The farmers of Licking county are cordially invited to attend and see this show, as many of them contributed corn to make the exhibition possible.

"Messiah" Tonight.

The final rehearsal for the "Messiah" which is to be given tonight in the Auditorium, was held this morning by the entire company under the direction of Prof. Walter W. Flora. The "Messiah," which is given under the auspices of the Newark Choral Society, will be one of the most elaborate song festivals ever attempted in Newark, and the trained chorus of 60 voices, augmented by prominent soloists, will make an entertainment long to be remembered by Newark musicians and music-lovers. The soloists all arrived today in time for this morning's rehearsal. They are Maude Wentz MacDonald, contralto; Columbus; Edith Sage MacDonald, soprano; Columbus; Walter W. Flora, tenor; Newark; and Marion Green, bass-cantante, Chicago. The pianists will be Misses Besse Green and Bertha Stevens.

If the Republican tariff revisionists sincerely wish to ascertain the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad they might learn something of that as well as of "reasonable profits" by comparing the Trust's prices of their products for export and the prices for the home market. That alone would afford most valuable aid in an honest revision of the tariff.

There appears to be no truth in the rumors of friction with Japan because of her failure to fulfill her "open door" promises in Manchuria. The yellow peril argument for the building of more battleships has been worn threadbare.

Still another offense is laid at the door of William J. Bryan. By last accounts he appears to have destroyed the prosperity of winter wheat in the germ.

By this time it ought to be plain enough to the organized workmen of the country that President Roosevelt is doing what he can to distract and divide them, while making ostentatious parade of his love of the cause of labor.

President-elect Taft has not yet mentioned how much higher he wishes to raise the 60 per cent. duty on earthenware for the potteries of Ohio and New Jersey. Probably a hint to Chairman Payne, of the committee on Ways and Means, would prove sufficient.

At the rate in which ex-Secretaries of the Navy have been created by this Administration, there are nearly as many of them as of useless battleships.

MAKES PREDICTION

(New Philadelphia Tribune.)
Congressman W. A. Ashbrook of Johnstown, Licking county, who was elected on the 3d inst. by the largest plurality ever given a Congressional candidate in this district, was in New Philadelphia on last Thursday, calling on friends and giving expression of his appreciation of the large vote he received in Tuscarawas county. The Tribune predicts Mr. Ashbrook will be a candidate for a third term for Congressional honors two years hence, and the probabilities are he will land the nomination.

Catarrh

Whether it is of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, or more delicate organs, catarrh is always debilitating and should have attention.

Success In Life Not Measured by Victories.

By Bishop THOMAS J. CONATY of Los Angeles.

SUCCESS in life is not measured altogether by victories. Failures, properly understood and appreciated, are frequently sources of life's ultimate success. No man can go through life without at times FAILING in the things he starts out to do, and sometimes failing most egregiously.

THE MAN WITH THE MARK OF SUCCESS UPON HIM IS THE ONE WHO HAS NOT ALLOWED FAILURE TO DISCOURAGE HIM, BUT WHO HAS RISEN FROM EACH FAILURE WITH THE DETERMINATION OF STUDYING THE CAUSE IN ORDER TO AVOID FUTURE FAILURE.

The history of successful men in every walk of life has many a chapter of failures. It is but another experience of the crown through the cross. DIFFICULTIES ARE OFTEN TIMES OUR BEST MASTERS. They serve to discipline the character; they test the value in us; they make for the worth of life; they give the sterling ring to the character. The mere SIGHING after the ability to do the great things done by others never goes beyond the difficulty that arises at the very suggestion in the sigh. Success is in the wish when with it there are ENERGY AND DETERMINATION.

EVERY TEMPTATION TO DISCOURAGEMENT CONCEALS A VICTORY WHICH MAY BE WON BY FIDELITY TO THE AIM AND PURPOSE WHICH LIE BEFORE US. THE CONQUEST OF DIFFICULTY BRINGS THE PURE GOLD OF SUCCESS.

We Must Be Dignified but Courteous to Other Nations.

By President ROOSEVELT.

I WISH to see this government able to hold its head aloft in the presence of the outside world. I wish to see it able to withstand any movement of aggression made against it and in return scrupulously careful to treat all other nations with the justice and good feeling which we demand that one individual shall show another.

I HOLD THAT THE INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS OF NATIONS SHOULD BE APPROACHED IN PRECISELY THE SAME SPIRIT IN WHICH WE APPROACH THE ORDINARY DUTIES OF INDIVIDUALS AS AMONG THEMSELVES.

A man has no business to suffer imposition. He is not a man if he SUBMITS to insult and wrong, and neither is he a nation if he INFLECTS wrong upon or insults any one else. I hope to see the conduct of the United States toward other powers always MODELED ON THAT PRINCIPLE.

We must do our duty abroad, but even more important is it to do our duty at home, and we can do our duty at home only if we show ourselves true to the principles which this government was founded to uphold.

GRANVILLE

Granville, Nov. 19.—Judging from indications and the number of extra tickets that have been sold in addition to the regular course tickets, there will be a jam in the Opera House tonight to hear Governor Frank Hanly, the noted lecturer and orator. The lecture association has been making an effort for the past two years to secure Governor Hanly for a lecture in Granville, and now that he is to be here tonight he will be greeted with a large audience.

Homer Carson of Fredericktown, O., was in the village Wednesday on business.

It is rumored that several additional test wells are to be put down in the vicinity of Granville in the near future. Experts of the opinion that a good field will eventually be found here.

Quite a number of Granville people went down to Newark Wednesday night to attend the college play. Miss Mable Owens, a charming young woman of Marion, O., who has been visiting friends in Granville and vicinity for several days, returned home Thursday.

A number of Phi Gams entertained at dinner Wednesday evening the following young ladies: Misses Ruth Davenport, Mary L. Chamberlin, Zorilda Goodhart, Amy Jones, Bertha Latimer, Mary Dickinson, Ann Sorenson, Claire Fiefield, Dee Thornton, Agnes Walsh and Miss Beckham.

After a pleasant visit with relatives in Granville, Mrs. C. G. Harris has returned to Columbus.

Miss Edith Robbins of Cincinnati, is visiting in the village for a few days, the guest of Miss Dorothy Kibler.

Miss Belle Newton of Bowling Green, O., is visiting in the village, the guest of Miss Helen Case.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

More people traveled the Pullman cars this year than ever before, according to the annual report of the Pullman Car company, showing that when Americans are hard up they don't practice economy by riding in the ordinary coach, which, after all, is more comfortable in most cases than the first class carriages of the European railroads.

Mr. G. W. Andrews of the office of chief engineer maintenance of way of the B. & O. company, headquarters in Baltimore, is engaged in making an inspection of all the buildings and bridges on the trans-Ohio divisions of the road.

There is great excitement in the ranks of the grain dealers throughout the country over the action of the interstate commerce commission in ordering the railroads to discontinue the payment to shippers of elevator charges. The grain dealers are generally much perturbed, and insist upon a reversion of the commission's order.

Local railroad offices will shortly announce excursion rates to Chicago, the occasion being the exposition, for the promotion of animal industry, to be held the first week in December. The authorized rate is a fare and one-half for the round trip, the return limit being ample to permit of a week's stay in Chicago.

How To Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 West Congress street, Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine, about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. POLICE COURT

Minor Cases Heard In City Prison Court Room by Mayor Atherton.

Admitting that he got a bicycle "somewhere in East Newark," Loyd Karigan, suspected of the theft, was questioned for some time Thursday morning by Mayor Atherton and Chief Zergiebel. Karigan went to the city prison Tuesday night "wet to the eyebrows" and growing insulting to Turnkey Swank, was locked up by the officer. Karigan was suspected of taking the wheel which was afterwards sold at a pawn shop. He was returned to the cell room.

Joe Herrell, colored, who was released from the county jail, Tuesday, was picked up yesterday afternoon by Chief Zergiebel and locked up on suspicion. Herrell's specialty is stealing bicycles and has served several sentences on this charge. He pleaded hard for his release and addressing Mayor Atherton said: "Mayoh, if you'd let me out dis head time ah 'ull let me out dis head time ah 'ull back." Taking him at his word the mayor discharged him but warned him that should he again be arrested in Newark he would draw twenty days in the county jail.

COURSE ON INCREASING RACE

Fashionable Girls' School to Teach Motherhood Problems.

In order that the students of Lenox Hall, a fashionable girls' school in the west end of St. Louis, may learn how to become good mothers and become acquainted with the problems of maternity a trained nurse has been installed as a member of the faculty.

First aid to the injured will be taught, but in addition the more delicate problems of maternity will be taken up. The prime object of the institution, according to its directress, is to make good, companionable wives with a working knowledge of everything about the house.

When it comes to doing business even the dealer in phonographs may try to break the record.

STOCKING BAG GIFT.

A Christmas Remembrance Our Grandmothers Found Very Useful.

The stocking bag, as it was called, used to be a great favorite with our grandmothers for keeping their knitting wools in; but, while they used brown holland for its manufacture, the modern bag is made in old rose linen with the embroidery done in black cotton, a color scheme which is extremely effective. For a good sized bag a yard of linen is required, the actual bag taking three-fourths of a yard and the strip for the pockets one-fourth yard.

First take the linen for the bag and make a broad hem with a place for a drawstring at the top. Then fold the

MATERIALS REQUIRED.

Six yards of rose-colored linen.
Two yards of inch wide ribbon.
Embroidery silks.

narrow piece for the pockets into six, creasing them with a warm iron, and embroider some simple design on each of the six divisions. When the embroidery is finished arrange the pockets on the bag, afterward firmly stitching them along the creases. Stitch up the side of the bag and then sew the bottom to a round of the linen, concealing the turnings by means of another round of linen neatly hemmed on. Drawstrings of old rose ribbon finish off a very smart and useful bag.

GIFTS FOR A MAN.

Prints of Famous Pictures Mounted on Shaving Pads.

The inexpensive prints of famous pictures may be utilized in many charming ways. In homemade Christmas gifts. A token for a man which is just finished combines a shaving pad and calendar. One of the stiff gray photograph mounts is employed as a foundation. The tissue shaving leaves are clamped at the top of one side with brass paper fasteners, which not only hold them in place, but catch ribbon bows on the other side. The bows end the loop by which the card is hung. On the calendar side a copy of one of Ruissdael's Hollandish windmill scenes covers the upper half of the card. The calendar pad is pasted below.

A neat matchbox for a bachelor's room is made by covering a square with cream colored art linen which has been appropriately embroidered in some neat design. A miniature stein can be fastened to the card by means of narrow ribbon placed at the top and bottom of the stein and tied on the back of the card. This can be purchased for 10 cents. They are decorated with sentimental quotations.

YULETIDE PRESENTS.

Pretty Lingerie Ribbon Holders For the Christmas Tree.

Now is the time to make little novelties for Christmas.

One cannot begin too soon to make these clever little gifts, for before one knows it holiday time is upon us and there is a general frantic rush at the last moment, which means injudicious buying and inappropriate gifts.

Articles which are handmade, if they are well made and practical, are appreciated more than any other small gift. Among the newest ideas in fancy work are shown innumerable lingerie ribbon holders.

One of the most attractive is in the form of three little maids from school, which is illustrated. The little maids' aprons are made of black velvet or satin, and in the pockets are placed balls or spools of baby ribbon.

Three bolts of baby ribbon.

Traveling Toothbrush Case.

A traveling case for a toothbrush is within the powers of unskilled fingers. In making this use a piece of rubber cloth two inches wide and more than double the brush length. Form it into a long, narrow bag to be slipped into a second bag fashioned from silk or ribbon. The mouth of the second or outer bag is finished neatly, and there is a drawstring of narrow cord.

wringer from the Elko saloon was brought in and offered in evidence by the defense, over the objection of the prosecutor.

Dr. B. F. Barnes was next examined. He testified that a blow of the fist would produce such a fracture as that sustained by Luther in case the man's head were rested against some solid object when the blow was struck; that otherwise it would not.

Dr. Joss, osteopathic and medical doctor, was the next witness, corroborating the testimony of Dr. Barnes. George Tress testified as to the quarrelsome character of Luther when he had been drinking; but that he had heard no persons in particular say anything as to his reputation. He stated that he had had trouble with Luther.

Roy McClain said that he had known Luther for five or six years and that when under the influence of liquor his disposition was to fight. McClain said that a couple of times he had been in trouble with Luther when he had not been drinking. He said the second time Luther struck him.

"Wilson may have eaten at my house a couple of times but never boarded there. I had been around East Newark with Luther quite a bit, and about the only time I ever saw him have any trouble was with me."

Maggie Staugh testified that she lived above Brown's grocery, near the George saloon on the night of the trouble. She said: "I got a glimpse of Mr. Luther that night, when I got up and looked out the window. I saw 'Toot' Luther looking out his window, and later saw him let 'Pink' in the house. I only heard 'Pink' say it was he, and that's all I heard or saw. In my talk with Mrs. Ritter I did not say that I saw Luther fall down before he went in the house that night."

Martin Kennedy of Sabina, Ohio, a real estate man, testified to his acquaintance with Wilson. He said: "I have had several business relations with him in the past ten or twelve years, and have had plenty of opportunities of observing him while at his work. His character is good. He was born and raised near Sabina."

The cross-examination brought out little for the State.

Following the testimony of Mr. Kennedy the court decided to adjourn.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Court convened at 9 o'clock for the continuation of the trial of Robert Wilson. Judge Campbell announced that there should be a limit to the number of character witnesses. After referring to the statutes, the court decided that ten character witnesses would be all that could be allowed.

Thomas Bucey of 20 South Arch street, East Newark, was the first witness called. He testified to the character of Wilson, having known him for five years. On direct examination the witness stated that Luther did not have a good reputation in East Newark and that he was of a quarrelsome character. On cross-examination, the prosecutor brought out the statement that the witness had been in the saloon business in East Newark for five years and knew Wilson principally through having dealing in his place of business.

John Finnegan, 215 1-2 East Main, said that he had met Luther, but had only seen him have one quarrel, that was at the Seiler Hotel. Cross-examination showed that the quarrel was not serious.

Dr. A. T. Speer, physician and surgeon, testified that he didn't think it possible for a blow of the fist to fracture the temporal bone of a man standing free, and not leaning against any solid substance. The prosecutor resisted the efforts of the defense to get the witness' statement as to whether the man's skull would be fractured by striking a mop bucket in a fall. The court permitted the witness' answer to go on record. Dr. Speer stated that a blow of the fist on that portion of the skull would be more apt to cause a fracture at the base of the brain.

Dr. J. G. Shirer, physician and surgeon, corroborated the above testimony, stating that a fracture such as sustained by Luther would be improbable from a blow of the fist. He said that he had never read of such being the case.

Dr. J. W. Hornby was called next. He agreed with the former two expert witnesses, stating that the temporal bone at the point in question is harder than the bones of the knuckle.

P. J. Curran of Sabina, was called as a character witness. He testified that in his opinion Wilson's character was alright and that he bore a good reputation. The cross-examination showed that the witness had met Wilson on an average of once a week at Sabina, but had little means of knowing anything about him since he lived in Newark.

D. B. Williams was the next witness. His home is also at Sabina, Clinton county. He testified that for ten years he has been the marshal of the village. He testified in favor of Wilson's character and reputation, and, on cross-examination, the same result was obtained as in the case of the preceding witness.

A. J. McCartney of Sabina, who raised Wilson, from the time he was seven years old until he was 21, was the next witness. He said that Wilson left Sabina in 1901. He testified that Wilson's general character and reputation about Sabina was good, but that he knew little of his character while in Newark.

John Ryan, of East Newark, first ward, a locomotive engineer, was next called as a character witness. His testimony was the same as the other character witnesses of the defense. He said he knew him when he fired for Riley, Cummins, and Johns. The witness was one of Wilson's bondsmen.

On cross-examination witness said that he did not know of any trouble between Wilson and a man named Ross Linn in which the latter is alleged to have had a peace warrant sworn out for him.

Barney Riley came next. He lives on Buena Vista street, East Newark, and is a B. & O. passenger engineer, having been with the company since 1875. Witness testified to an acquaintance with Wilson and spoke well of his character.

C. C. Cummings, a B. & O. engineer, living on North Morris street, East Newark, testified that Wilson fired for him about two years and that he was in his company in that capacity about every day. He was also a character witness for the defense.

On cross-examination the witness was asked about some trouble that he is alleged to have had with a man named Uffner about a year ago in which Wilson was supposed to have been mixed up. The court refused to permit the State's attorney to question the witness on this point.

Dr. B. M. East, an East Newark pharmacist, was next called, as a character witness, scoring a few points for the defense on direct examination.

Wm. Downey, 452 North Fourth, a clerk at the American Bottle company's plant, was the next witness. He stated that from 1903 until 1906, he had known Wilson, seeing him nearly every evening while he lived in East Newark. He said that Luther was quarrelsome when he was under the influence of liquor. On cross-examination the witness could give no particular instance of Luther having trouble with any one. He said that he had seen Wilson drinking but never saw drunk. He said that he usually saw Wilson in East Newark saloons.

Harry Johns, a B. & O. engineer, said Wilson fired for him on the Cincinnati division for 18 months and testified to the witness' character.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Maggie Staugh was recalled to the stand Thursday afternoon and asked a few questions, after which the defendant, Robert Wilson, took the stand. The witness appeared at ease.

"I am now 30 years old. I came here in 1901 and shortly after got a job in the B. & O. shops. Later, I went to firing on the road for over five years."

"I knew Luther for about four years. He always was of quarrelsome disposition when under the influence of liquor."

"About 11 o'clock Luther was in there the second time. Crown and Cosgrove, Molder, Ornsdorf and I, maybe Ramsey, were also there."

"Luther was standing at the bar pulling at Dayton and pulling his hat down over his head. I walked up to Luther and put my right hand on his right shoulder and said: 'Cut that out, Pink.' Then he threw his right hand toward me and I grabbed it. He struck me with his left. I dodged him and struck him with my right fist in the jaw."

He continued: "Luther sank down and stretched out. I stood there for a little bit and left. I had no intention of hitting Luther to cause his death."

The cross-examination was conducted by Mr. Fitzgibbon.

The cross-examination was very close on the conversation between Wilson and the coroner at the city prison. Wilson left the stand at 2:20.

H. H. Scott of the American Tribune was called and testified as to bare knuckle fighting.

It is presumed that only a few more witnesses will be examined, and it is believed that the case will be in shape so arguments can be begun in the morning.

ABOUT "SEALSHIP" OYSTERS.

"Sealship" Oysters are a dish "fit for a King." They have a flavor that causes the epicure to smack his lips for more.

The only way to get the true oyster flavor is to buy "Sealship" Oysters.

"Sealship" come direct from the beds, packed in airtight, steel containers, with ice around the containers, but not in contact with the oysters. "Sealship" is the only method of shipping that retains the original, distinctive oyster taste. You get cold, naturalized meats. The price of "Sealship" is higher than for tasteless, soft, insipid tub oysters; yet they actually cost less since they go so much farther. But "Sealship" Oysters are worth more than any oysters you ever saw, you will agree to this after you have once tried them.

Notice how tempting "Sealship" Oysters are displayed in the Pure White Porcelain Case bearing the Blue "Sealship" Trade Mark—your guarantee of purity and excellence. J. M. Brown & Son; C. L. Conrad.

It is quite natural that a pull will get a man to the top quicker than push.

MOVING PICTURES TOMORROW NIGHT

The genius of Edison has at last been brought under tribute to the world-wide missionary enterprise. On the evening of Friday, Nov. 20 there will be given at the Central Church of Christ of Newark, a striking exhibition of heathen life through the medium of moving pictures. These moving picture films have been secured by the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, and will be shown on the above date in connection with the Missionary Rally at the church.

Two years ago a deputation was sent around the world to secure these pictures. These men traveled in Africa, India, China and Japan. They secured the moving pictures under great difficulties. One of the scenes is that of the awful sacrifices in the temple of Kali at Calcutta, India. It was necessary for the men taking the pictures to bribe the priests and then after getting access to the great heathen temple he was obliged to secrete himself behind the pillars of the temple during the period of sacrifice.

These moving pictures bring the customs and the awful need of these far away lands before the very eyes of the people. In connection with the moving pictures, many stereopticon slides will also be shown, exhibiting various phases of heathen life and missionary work around the world.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

G. W. Hartley, living at Hebron, O., says: "For several years I suffered from disordered kidneys but was unable to obtain the slightest relief from the numerous remedies I used. I finally heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured a box at Crayton's drug store and received prompt relief. I am glad to endorse such an efficient kidney remedy."

THANKSGIVING

Dinner Will Not be Furnished to the Poor by Salvation Army—Planning for Christmas.

While no preparations are being made by the Salvation Army for the feeding of the poor at Thanksgiving, plans are being made for a big Christmas dinner that will be served the same as in years past.

The year has been a fairly easy one on the poor of Newark, and open season is predicted for Thanksgiving and for that reason the army does not expect it necessary to sell for food and clothing for the poor residents of the city.

The Christmas dinner last year was one of the most successful ever served by the army in Newark, and everything was done to make the dinner this year as good, if not better than in 1907.

The army will be glad to have

MR. JOHN KINNEY

A Prominent Indianapolis Lawyer
Says: "After Grippe Take Vinol—
It Built Me Up and Made Me Feel Strong."

"The grippe left me in a nervous, wakened, run down condition.
Nothing seemed to restore my strength. At last I tried Vinol with the very best of results. It built me up and made me feel like a different man, and I am now better and stronger than I have been for years." John Kinney, Indianapolis, Ind.

This is because Vinol is a genuine tonic and body-builder, which contains penicillin of iron together with every one of the body-building medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but without one drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. Vinol acts directly on the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, and enables the digestive organs to obtain the necessary elements from the food eaten to make rich, red blood, healthy flesh and muscle tissue and create strength.

USEFUL PRESENTS.

Dainty Christmas Trifle For the Woman Who Sews—Ribbon Holder.

A sewing case of cretonne is always appreciated as a gift by the woman who does her own mending. The vivid colors of the cretonne and the grace of the design make it particularly attractive as a material for this purpose. The case illustrated may easily be made at home at a very small cost.

A strip of cretonne is used for the outside of the case, and the inside is lined with silk harmonizing with the colors in the design. The sewing materials are held in place with straps of ribbon. At each end of the case are ribbons that tie it when not in use.

A most ingenious and convenient holder for the rolls of baby ribbon which are such necessary trifles in the wardrobe of the dainty woman has been devised and is so simply formed that it may be attempted by the merest amateur in sewing. When complete it resembles a very large spool of cotton, and the starting point is to cut two rounds in cardboard one inch larger in diameter than the roll of baby ribbon.

These are covered on both sides with anything convenient, though white linen outside and white china silk on the inside is a suggestion.

Around one end may be embroidered
"A Friend in Need," on the other the initials going diagonally. Holes are pierced in the center of the cardboard and the rolls of ribbon and the ends secured under rosettes sewed on the cardboard where the holes are in the cotton spool, the rolls in varied hue taking the place of the cotton.

The hanger also starts from these points, and through a loop on one end of the spool a tiny pair of scissors is slipped, the other end holding a bodkin in a similar loop.

SET OF BLOTTERS.

Useful Holiday Gift That May Be Made at Home.

This simple and inexpensive gift can be made with little trouble. Buy a big sheet of gray blotting paper, dark gray preferred, the finest calendar that you can purchase and a yard of one-half inch holly red ribbon.

Cut twelve pieces of the paper 3 or 6 inches. Then, after taking the calendar apart, paste one month on the upper left hand corner of each blotter. Put the blotters in a pile, taking care to have the months of the calendars in order, and tie them together with the ribbon in the way shown in the illustration.

If you wish, you can make an envelope of cardboard, provided it is thin enough, after the patterns of any envelope in the house, and print in the upper left hand corner in gilt letters "Greeting to a Friend." Place the blotters in this, and you have a very attractive and useful present.

Waist Protectors.
One of the simplest and at the same time one of the most appreciative gifts which one can make a girl is a waist protector to slip over the closet hanger which holds her fancy waists.

It is the easiest thing in the world to make.

Take a square of figured silk, silkone or any pretty, light material, cut a hole in the center large enough to slip easily around the collar of the waist and finish around the edges with some pretty white lace.

Rosettes of narrow satin ribbon tacked on the corners will add to the dainty effect.

Lining is not advised, as this would make the protector too heavy for delicate waists.

Nickel Bread Trays.
Quaint and ornamental for the table
are the nickel bread trays in old colonial design, showing fluted and beaded borders in highly polished finish.
These trays are somewhat boat shaped and show ornamental effects in pierced work.

lar quotations illuminated with elaborate floral garnitures printed on large cards and furnished with rings by which to suspend them are 25 cents

HEADQUARTERS SECURED BY NEW ORGANIZATION IN THE LINEHAN BLOCK

Workingmen's Protective Union Will be Permanently Established in New Home Immediately

BIG MEETING NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

To Which Every Wage Worker, Organized, or Un- organized is Invited---Report of Committees' Conference on Wednesday Night.

The Workingmen's Protective Union on Thursday morning secured Room 3, in the Linehan Block, and invite every citizen in Newark to call, and they will be accorded courteous treatment, whether for or against the county option movement. Some one will be there from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. We are in earnest, and do not wish to be either fanatical or illogical. We want to be fair. Come see us.

A conference of the various committees appointed last Sunday by the president of the Workingmen's Protective Union, which was organized last Sunday, by representatives of nearly every craft in the city, was held Wednesday evening in the hall of the Trades and Labor Council.

It was a rousing and most harmonious meeting of these committees, representing the workingmen who will be directly affected by the success, in this county, of the adherents of the Rose county option bill. This organization, which was formed last Sunday, takes up this matter, not only in the interest of organized labor, but of all wage earners. It is non-sectarian and non-political. It has for its object the betterment of the average workingman. Can any nobler object be devised for? The members of the organization are men engaged in almost every line of industrial activity.

President Bernard Balzer gave an interesting talk in opening the meeting and then called for reports from the various committees represented, which were given by the chairmen. As report succeeded report, it seemed that each one was in better accord with the objects of the organization, which is to fully, freely and honestly discuss county option.

The sentiment of the meeting was expressed by one, substantially as follows:

"Do the people of Newark realize what prohibition means to the city and county?"

"In regard to the wage earner for instance?"

"To those who claim it a moral issue, may I ask, 'Is it morality to keep me idle, or just and fair?'"

"Mr. Fair-minded Citizen, be governed by your honest convictions. If they take my work from me, will they replace that work, so that I may support my family and give an education to my children?"

"Why should the voters of this county deprive its citizens of this chance?"

"This prohibition movement will throw hundreds of men out of employment if it is successful."

"Let us be fair."

"Look seriously at the question."

"Carefully consider the consequences."

"Do you want your neighbor idle?"

"Certainly not."

"Then why advocate local option? That is its logical result."

"We as workingmen and taxpayers want to be fair, now, voters, be fair with us."

After other remarks, and a general review of the situation the conference adjourned to meet at the call of President Balzer.

YOUR FRIENDS--

Never take the hint if you are entirely out of funds when they come around to make their artistic touch.

Love you for yourself alone, but don't object if they see a lot of your rich relations incidentally.

Love the game of mutual criticism, but want exclusive use of the microscope and to do all the talking.

Can't understand why you don't love their children, no matter how ornery the little rascals are.

Require delicate deference to their supersensitive nerves, but express great surprise at the thought that you may have a nerve or two yourself.

Can't understand why their domestic should object to being asked to stay in on their regular day out.

When they are sick are sicker than ever mortal was before, and on their recovery consider the story of their illness the most interesting subject for conversation for an indefinite length of time.

Never weary of talking about the things they used to do and the friends they used to have.

Require lots of attention and entertainment when they visit you, but when you are their guest say "Just make yourself at home" and let it go at that.

AMUSEMENTS

STRONGHEART.

In the last two acts of "Strongheart" the witnesses of last night's performance of the piece began to realize that they were seeing a real show. The first two acts were plainly disappointing to the audience, for they lacked the smoothness together with earnestness on the part of the performers, that should have held at least a mild degree of the attraction of the audience.

An exception to that prevailing coldness was Robert Lee Allen, as "Billy Sammers" undoubtedly the cleverest man of the entire cast. Mr. Allen was fortunate enough to have a corner on the comedy lines and situations, and to say that he made the best of them would be stating it mildly.

In the second act the members of the company seemed to awaken to the situations very nicely. Of course, the plot of the piece does not begin to entangle about the Indian "Strongheart," until this second act. Robert Gaillard was at all times all that could have been expected in the role of the Indian student, and his ability as an actor was most prominently displayed in the real scene of the play—the parting of the ways.

This particular scene, as portrayed last night by Mr. Gaillard and Miss Marguerite Lindsay made one of the most intense love scenes that it has been the pleasure of the local theater patrons to witness in a long time.

In this scene Strongheart, who has been educated at Columbia university by his people that he may be better fitted to return to them as their chief, has already realized the development of love for Miss Nelson, the white girl, and sister of his best friend. Just as he learns that the love is mutual and has the promise of the hand of the young woman from herself, against the racial prejudice of her brother and family, a messenger (by the way, excellently acted by Mr. Beery), comes from his nation with the word that his father, the chief is dead and that he (Strongheart) must now return to rule. The struggle between his people's call and the love of the young white girl is dramatic in the extreme, for both together would be impossible to him, so Strongheart, at the cost of love, and for the sake of the white girl, returns to his people to try to forget his love born of civilization.

In this scene, Miss Lindsay, as the Indian's white sweetheart, awoke to the situation delightfully and fully redeemed the apparent listlessness that made one feel during the first two acts that she was greatly lacking. She proved her ability beyond question.

It was not a large audience that greeted the production last night, but it is safe to say that a future engagement would be greeted by a far larger patronage.

presentation in this city is sure to awaken a degree of interest that will not be exceeded by any theatrical announcement for the year.

The last half of the work at the Orphium will be seen four more good acts, Mudge and Morton in a high class musical act; Zandrelles, the novelty gymnasts; Ernest Walburn, a little chap doing a singing, dancing and talking act that is exceptionally clever; Leo and Chapman the feature act, being reported from other towns to be the funniest act on the circuit. With new pictures and song, this will be a great show for the last half. There will be the usual extra attraction Friday night.

Mr. Dunsmore was for many years the leading singing comedian of the famous "Bostonians" after which he has built the present organization. In presenting "The Barber of Seville" he is offering a work of the highest merit and one that is sure to make a strong appeal to the love of clean comedy and the best of music. For the presentation of the opera he has assembled a company of singers and comedians whose name and fame have long been established in the metropolitan centers of the world. ENDORSEMENT FROM WHEELING
Nov. 10, G. Morse, Newark, O., Resident Manager Auditorium Theater:

I wish to call your attention to the coming engagement of Ellen Ferguson in "The Barber of Seville" in your city. You are no doubt aware that Newark is one of the six one night stands, that secure this attraction on this season. The company jump from Indianapolis to Newark, thence to Wheeling and direct east, where they resume their New York engagement.

You can recognize this attraction as being even stronger than "The Wolf." They carry a much larger cast and should be one of the dramatic treats of the season. Do everything in your power to secure a good business, and above all things impress your patrons with the magnitude of the production and of the cast presenting the play. You can safely come out in the newspapers and announce that they are going to see a much better play than "The Wolf."

Now we did not make a mistake in recommending "The Wolf" and you certainly need not hesitate in going the other way in "Pierre of the Plains."

Years very truly,

GRANTED
NEW TRIAL

ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER FOR CAUSING DEATH OF HER SERVANT.

Mrs. Emma Kauffman, Known at Granville, Where She Had Visited Son at College.

Piom, S. D., Nov. 19 - The Supreme court has granted a new trial to Mrs.
Emma Kauffman, wife of a Sioux Falls brewer, who was found guilty of manslaughter on a charge of causing the death of a servant through beating.

The circumstances in connection with the charges made against Mrs.
Kauffman are still fresh in the minds of readers of the Advocate. Mrs.

Kauffman who is the wife of a Sioux Falls millionaire brewer, was charged with having caused the death of her Swedish servant girl by mistreatment.
It was said that she poured scalding water over her, beat her and otherwise mistreated her. The case created considerable local interest from the fact that Mrs. Kauffman's son, Charles Kauffman, was a student at Denison university at the time.
The young man, who was considered one of the brightest students of the university, felt the disgrace, and although he as well as his friends, felt that the charges against his mother had been grossly exaggerated, he left the college at the end of his Sophomore year in 1906, and entered Yale college, where he is now a Senior.
Mrs. Kauffman visited Granville several times during the time her son was in Denison, and made a very favorable impression on all who formed her acquaintance.

We all want the good things of life, but we don't want to be the "good things."

Give Your Washerwoman Fels-Naptha,
Says Anty Drudge.

Mrs. Gossiper—"Goodness, but Mrs. Verrich must have a lot of work in that big house. I've heard she had four women doing the washing."

Mrs. Cottager—"I have had more than a dozen doing my washing, though only one at a time."

Anty Drudge—"If you bought Fels-Naptha soap, you could keep your washerwoman longer or do the washing yourself. Washing is a small job for any woman if she uses Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, and lets it take the place of boiling and hard rubbing."

Dirt is the home of germs. You gather them in the dust that settles on your clothes, in the mud of the streets, from soiled car seats and in many other places.
You want to kill these germs in the weekly wash, or they may cause trouble.
Fels-Naptha soap is a germicide. With it, boiling is not necessary either to destroy germs or wash the clothes. In cold or lukewarm water, Fels-Naptha makes short work of dirt, and disease germs cannot live in the same tub.

Be sure and use Fels-Naptha soap the Fels-Naptha way—no hot water.

CHRISTMAS

Drawing Near and Newark Merchants are Preparing to Show Fine Line of Holiday Goods.

Christmas is just thirty-six days away!

Have you thought seriously that the great festival time of the entire year is almost at hand? Already the stores of Newark are beginning to take on a sort of holiday appearance and daily the merchants are receiving their holiday goods.

A trip around the city and through the business houses will show many interesting novelties that are already on sale, and the wise person will make an early selection and not wait until Christmas eve for selecting presents.

In spite of the best care the goods will become slightly soiled by handling, and an early selection will insure the clean, new look that is to be desired in the gifts.

Then, too, by purchasing early the clerks, many of them of the gentler sex, will be treated to something almost like a rest, for as a general thing the rush of the few days before December 25 tire them out, for they are on their feet almost continually.

Of course the Santa Claus and the red bells and the Christmas "ads" are missing, but nevertheless the passerby will stop and exclaim, "Why what a bargain, and wouldn't it make a nice Christmas present?"

Newark merchants do not expect to put their Christmas goods on display until after Thanksgiving, but the fact remains that right now many an attractive little novelty can be picked up that later cannot be duplicated.

A popular present this year will be the Arts and Crafts handiwork. This line can be found in desk sets, bric-a-brac and match boxes as well as in jewelry. The early shopper has a wide field to choose from here, and will find it much easier to make a choice while he or she is unhurried and before everything has been "picked over".

And while Christmas is but 26 days away, yet only 33 shopping days remain.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED.

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved
By External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skill of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of winter-
green, thymol and glycerine, as in D.
D. D. Prescription.

Dr. Rev. Lewis Stealey, of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 3 1-2 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent;
we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children. Frank D.
Hall.
